To apply for this scholarship, send a Letter of Application listing your experience in clogging thus far and why you want to become a Certified Clogging Instructor.

Below are examples of what an applicant can include in their Letter of Application.

Experience

- Number of years you have clogged
- Number of years you have taught
- Were you taught in a classroom setting or are you self taught?
- Are you a recreational clogger, competitive clogger, or both?
- List your experiences with teaching, i.e. in a studio, Parks and Recreation, your home?
- Do you teach children, teens or adults?
- Have you danced on any competition or performance teams? Have you directed or assisted in directing any of these teams?
- Have you written any choreography, if yes, what levels?
- Have you attended any workshops, conventions or festivals? Have you taught at any of these events?
- List any clogging events you've organized.
- List any educational classes you've taken for clogging

Why CCI?

- Your letter should also explain why you would like to be a Certified Clogging Instructor.
- How does being a clogging instructor fit in with your plans or long term goals?
- Don't hesitate to elaborate in this area. We are really interested in getting to know you even if it's only through a letter of application.

Please Note: You don't have to have accomplished all of what is listed. These are just examples and there is no right or wrong answer. We are interested in learning about your experiences and what your plans or desires are with clogging. You may email your Letter of Application to sewiclog@gmail.com
